

CIDA 360°

From poverty to opportunity:
why development matters

CIDA 360° is a multimedia exhibit that illustrates the work Canadians are doing in developing countries around the world.

On display in the Tupper Link Building
Carleton Campus, Dalhousie University
from January 24 to February 2, 2012

Learn about the Canadian International Development Agency, and the positive impact Canada is having around the world thanks to the efforts of Canadians and our development partners.
